I was afraid of this textbook. I was afraid of this class. This text is written so well that it has laid waste to all my fears. The material is not as dry as I had expected. Each chapter builds upon the last and this enhances the learning experience very well.

This book is surprisingly readable. Although the subject matter sounds dry, the author makes it very accessible. You can feel her enthusiasm for the law as you read. Packed with information and references, I will keep this book after my class is over.

This book by Bouchoux is a clear, concise and easy to read and understand text on legal research and writing if you are studying to become a paralegal.

I was very intimidated before taking this class but this book helped to put my fears at ease! This book was so well written and descriptive that even those with minimal legal researching knowledge will be able to understand. It comes with lots of examples, which is very useful. The book is captivating and I would highly recommend it!

What can I say. It is the right book. He likes his class and he is using the book and doing well.

To be able to look up something, and get the facts , I am still using the book ,and shall keep it,for my paralegal work, I would like for my fellow students to think the exact way that I do about it,

Very informative book and in great condition. This one I am going to keep for future reference when I obtain something full time in the paralegal field.Ramona R. Williams

I needed it for a legal research class it arrived early and it sure helps a lot it summaries stuff easily and keep it simple so I can understand. Love it
